

Website Privacy Statement

Last updated: August 2026

We respect your privacy and want you to feel comfortable using our website. This statement explains, in plain language, what information may be collected when you visit our site and how we use it.

Information You Choose to Give Us

If you contact us through the website, register for an activity, request information, or otherwise provide your name, email address, phone number, or other information, we use that information only for the purpose for which you provided it and for appropriate church-related communication.

We do not sell or rent your personal information.

If you share personal or sensitive information with us, such as in a prayer request or message to church staff, we will treat that information with appropriate care and respect.

Information Collected Automatically

Like most websites, our website and hosting services may automatically collect basic technical information, such as your IP address, browser type, device type, pages visited, and the date and time of your visit.

This information may be used to operate the website, maintain its security, and understand generally how visitors use the site.

Cookies and Outside Services

Our website may use cookies and may include services or content provided by other organizations, such as Google, YouTube, Facebook, online giving providers, or other website services.

These organizations may collect information according to their own privacy policies. We do not control how those outside services collect or use information.

Links to Other Websites

Our website may contain links to other websites. Once you follow a link to another website, that site's privacy practices apply.

Protecting Your Information

We take reasonable steps to protect information provided through our website. However, no website or method of electronic communication can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

Your Choices

You are not required to provide personal information simply to browse our website.

If you have provided personal information to us and would like us to correct or remove it, please contact us.

Questions

If you have questions or concerns about this privacy statement or how information submitted through this website is handled, please contact the church through the contact information provided on this website.

We may update this privacy statement from time to time as our website and the services we use change.
